

What is PROSTaid?

- We are a local charity, run by prostate cancer patients, their families, friends and medical professionals.
- We are funding dedicated prostate cancer nurses in Leicestershire & Northamptonshire hospitals.
- We run support groups to give care and help and information for patients.
- We provide funding to advance new treatments and concepts.
- Our mission is to raise awareness so that this cancer is spotted earlier and can be treated effectively.
- We rely entirely on donations and bequests to continue our work and receive no government funding.

PROSTaid prostate cancer nurses as well as local consultants and oncologists and health professionals visit our groups regularly to give their help, advice and support.

Local support groups to help you!

PROSTaid support Groups meeting monthly or in the case of the African/African Caribbean group weekly to help you!

Who runs the groups?

PROSTaid's five support groups in Leicester and Leicestershire & Northamptonshire are run by volunteers who themselves have experienced prostate cancer and want to help you and your partner on your prostate cancer treatment journey and beyond.

What do they do?

Our PROSTaid specialist prostate cancer nurses also come along to some of the groups & give their help, advice and support, as well as local consultants, surgeons, and oncologists and researchers, and health professionals all concerned with improving the care of prostate cancer locally.
